Re: Legislative Update

This Week at The Capitol:

With the Proposed Bill deadline in the rearview mirror, posted bills have slowed to a trickle. As Committee and Raised bills are drafted and posted, I expect them to pick up again. There have been nearly 1,500 bills written in these first three weeks of the Session.

On Monday, Members of the Advocacy Committee met with Rep. Liz Linehan to talk specifics with her about analysis of youth after the COVID pandemic. On Tuesday, the Children's Committee raised a concept entitled: An Act Concerning (AAC) a Study of the Post-Pandemic Needs of Children. I expect this concept to be fully drafted in the next week or so with a public hearing to follow.

On Wednesday, the Judiciary Committee met to raise 50 concepts including AAC the Minimum Age to be Eligible to Marry. I expect this bill to be fully drafted in the coming week, again, with a public hearing to follow.

CYSA also has a date on the calendar to meet with the Chairs of the Appropriations Committee where we will have the opportunity to lay out our request for this session. Stay tuned.

As always, please contact me at your convenience should you have any questions or concerns about these or any other Legislative matters. Also, please share this information with your members as you see fit.
